

Self-Introduction Video Resume

Task1:

Hello everyone, I am Gayathri S. And am very happy that I have given a chance to represent me and my skills in front of you. Coming back to me I am 22 years old fully passionate goal oriented and skill full person.

I have completed my Bachelor's in Computer Science and Engineering from VTU University. I am a very confident person as well as a good and quick learner as I comprises of various problem-solving skills and also have experienced in various coding languages am currently working in Capgemini as an Analyst / Software Engineer under APAC platform CCA (business unit).

I have trained as a JavaScript full stack developer, to full fill all the needs of this field I have done projects in MEAN and MERN stack in MEAN projects our project tittle was digital super market I have worked in admin module and order place module MERN project was E-banking and were I was working as a team lead, it was a group project and we have successfully completed the project and also got technical understanding of Angular, ReactJs, Bootstrap, Expressjs, Nodejs. To make my skills more precise and enhanced also am doing various courses in various platforms. Recently I have done Agile and Java certifications from coursera along with my technical skills I also comprises good leadership, time management and team building skills, Which I have learned in the various clubs and communities which I was a part of university and also with Capgemini. I believe that I met all the criteria and skills which my profile needed for the jobs, so adding me to the work force would be great value at organization and I assure that the company will be keep on growing and gaining with me around them. Thank you so much.